Elmore & Wall, P.A. is pleased to announce that Bryan P. Kelley has joined the firm's Greenville, South Carolina office as an associate. Kelley graduated from Wofford College in 2004 and the University of South Carolina School of Law in 2007. Following law school graduation, he clerked for the Honorable J. Derham Cole, Resident Judge for the Seventh Judicial Circuit of South Carolina and was an Assistant Solicitor at the Seventh Circuit Solicitor's Office in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Kelley was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2007 and to the North Carolina Bar in 2008. He will focus his practice on construction and surety law. Elmore & Wall, with 15 lawyers, has offices in Charleston, South Carolina, Greenville, South Carolina, and Raleigh, North Carolina. The firm's clients range from small and medium sized companies to some of the largest domestic and international corporations doing business in the United States.
